Summer Guest Teachers

Be sure to follow us on instagram @statestreetballetacademy to see when Aaron and Nerea will be teaching this summer!

Aaron Smyth

At 17, he left home in Australia to chase his dream to be a professional ballet dancer. Since then, he has been a company member with the American Ballet Theatre II In New York, The Royal Ballet in London and The Joffrey Ballet in Chicago as well as being an original cast member in London's West End production of An American In Paris choreographed and directed by Christopher Wheeldon. He has danced for royalty, the Obamas and beautiful people like you as he now travels the globe as a guest principal artist. He's also danced on TV, appearing on two series of the Got Talent franchise, coming third in Australia and making the quarter finals in America. He is also featured on the Netflix ballet documentary First Position. He won the Gold Medal and audience choice award at the prestigious Genee International Ballet Competition and have won 5 X medals at other International Ballet Competitions. He recently received the Special Jury prize for Best Performer at the Shanghai International Ballet Competition. He is the founding director of his company Dance For Humanity and he recently played the role of the Snow Cavalier in Disney's The Nutcracker in the Four Realms feature film dancing with Misty Copeland. Aaron currently finished performing in Billy Elliot the Musical as Older Billy in the 10th anniversary tour of Australia.

Nerea Barrondo

Nerea Barrondo was born in Bilbao, Spain. She received her early training at Igor Yebra's Ballet Academy where she was trained by Anna Generalova and the Royal Conservatory of Dance Mariemma in Madrid. At age 14 Ms. Barrondo began her training at the Bolshoi Ballet Academy in Moscow and graduated four years later with excellent grades. She danced solo variations at the Bolshoi Ballet Academy performances such as "Flames of Paris Variation" and "Sylvia variation" and a little Cupid at the Bolshoi Ballet theatre's production of Don Quixote. During her training in Moscow, Ms. Barrondo participated at the Prix de Lausanne, won 3rd prize at the Rieti Ballet competition, top 12 YAGP Paris in senior classical and contemporary division, and 2nd and 1st prize at Pisa ballet competition.

This is her third season with Ballet Frontier, while with Ballet Frontier Ms. Barrondo has performed lead roles including The Sugar Plum Fairy in The Nutcracker, Diana in Diana & Actaeon, Effie in La Sylphide, the lead couple in Le Corsaire, Butterfly Lovers, and other original works by artistic director Chung Lin Tseng.
